

READY

OUTBREAK READINESS AND RESPONSE

LEARNING HUB

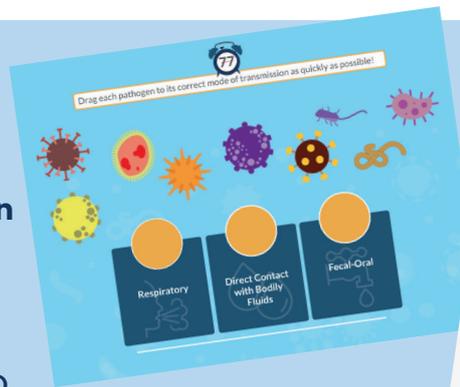

Are you ready to respond to the next big outbreak?

The READY Learning Hub provides a variety of courses, digital simulations, and resources for humanitarian actors to strengthen their readiness and response to major disease outbreaks.

➔ 60+ courses on outbreaks

Want to improve your understanding of WASH in epidemics? Looking for courses on Ebola or Cholera?

The READY Learning Hub contains 60+ courses on outbreak readiness and response, curated from key actors like WHO, UNICEF, and more. Search by disease or by topic of interest.

WASH in Epidemics
(English, French, Spanish, Arabic)

IYCF-E Remote Counseling
(English, French, Indonesian, Spanish, Arabic)

➔ Innovative outbreak simulations

Take on the role of a team lead or a health program manager in an evolving outbreak using a digital simulation. Learn while playing!

"The greatest advantage of the Learning Hub is the connection with other courses and having all of the outbreak-specific content centered in one place. That has been a huge problem for people on the ground as previously we found it difficult to identify all of the relevant courses. The Learning Hub answers that need."

Is this your first time here?

To take part in courses on Kaya you will need to create a free account. Do this by following the steps below.

Why do I need an account?

We need to know which courses you take so that we can keep a record of your progress, award you your certificates, and suggest other courses you might be interested in.

We also need to know who is taking part in courses so that we can look at the impact of the courses we offer and make sure we are creating courses that you want to join.

Finally, many of our courses are created using donations. We need to be able to report to our donors on the numbers of people who are using the content we create. We will not pass your personal information to our donors.

How do I create an account?

1. Complete the registration form at kayaconnect.org/register
2. When you submit the form, an email will be sent to the email address you have given us
